EMPTY HEART

Verse 1

There's this vacuum in my heart, this wide and empty space
That's begging to be filled, with someone's love
I've searched and still searching, For that special one,
But it seems no one's prepared,
To fill this space in my heart.

Verse 2

Perhaps it is all my fault, these barriers I put up
Which stops the filling of this vacuum in my heart
I need to stretch forth and reach people every where,
But there is this force from within Which stops me from doing my heart's will.

Bridge

Friends tell me to stop being shy,
Come Out of my shielding shell,
But somehow, I just won't
Move out from my hiding place.
This mask that, I hide behind
I won't remove for the life of me,
For the fear of the world
Knowing who I really am

Verse 3

Indeed, I enjoy being, at times, an enigma
But I also like it known, who I really am
Those who know me not well, Think am, distant and cold,
Oh how Little do they know

How far wrong from the truth they are!

Verse 4

If only they knew, that this was all a front
To protect the real me, that's quiet and shy
I am all alone, with this empty heart
That's desperate to be filled
With somebody's love

Ending

Oh I need someone to fill this empty space
Yes I need someone to fill this empty space
Yes I need someone to fill this empty space
In my heart

LOVE COWARD

Verse 1

Why am I so scared?
Why am so I yellow?
Why can't I let go of this prisoner in my heart?
Why do waves of fear drown me when I dare?
Is it because silence is golden?
May be so, but at times
I'm just a coward
Why I'm I so scared to tell you how I feel
Why is it so hard for me to say to you ...
Why aren't I brave enough to tell you
I love you
I love you

Verse 2

Anytime I try to say what's on my mind
I get so tongue tied just cannot find the words
To tell you that I've got feelings for you
To find the courage to say ...
I love you
I love you

Verse 3

You see me as just a very good friend
Its now or never I've gotta let you know
I want to be more than just a friend to you.

Its time you knew 'bout my feelings

I love you

I love you

I love you

I love you

Ending

Why am I so scared?

Why am so I yellow?

Why can't I let go of this prisoner in my heart?

Why do waves of fear drown me when I dare?

Why aren't I brave enough to tell you

I love you

I love you

I love you

I love you

WE'RE GOING TO LOVE TOWN

Intro

Lets go to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town

Verse 1

Where's the bus going to Love Town?
'Cause I'm tired of moping around.
Life is empty with no love to share,
So go pack your heart now,
And come with me to Love Town
And come with me to Love Town

Chorus

I hear Love Town is so beautiful,
The people there are soulful,
Such an enthralling place they say.
Will someone go and get the bus
That's taking us to Love Town.
Will someone please go and get the bus
We wanna go to Love Town.

Verse 2

I think that I hear the bus,
My goodness, what an insane rush!
Everybody seems to be going;
Well, why not? Love Town is waiting,
Come with me to Love Town
Come with me to Love Town

Chorus

I hear Love Town is so beautiful,
The people there are soulful,
Such an enthralling place they say

Will someone go and get the bus
That's taking us to Love Town.
Will someone please go and get the bus
We wanna go to Love Town.
Come with me to Love Town
Come with me to Love Town
Will someone please go and get the bus
Come with me to Love Town

I hear Love Town is so beautiful,
The people there are soulful,
Such an enthralling place they say.

Ending

I think that I hear the bus,
My goodness, what an insane rush!
To Love Town, Love Town
To Love Town
So come, lets go to Love Town
We're going to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town
We're going to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town
We're going to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town
Lets go to Love Town

BE MINE

Verse 1

When I see your face,
My heart runs a race.
When I see you smile,
My joy goes a mile.
Your wide-dovey eyes,
Melt my heart like ice.
The gap in your teeth
Sweeps me off my feet.
Every time of day you are on my mind.
No one can compare
With the way you are,
You are a treasure-mine
Be mine.
Be mine.

Verse 2

Everything you do
Is ever so cool
Like the way you dress
Never fails to impress
All the jokes you tell
They go down so well
You're just so much fun
Second to none
I get butterflies when I think of you
I go weak inside when I think of you

All the time
Be mine
Be mine

Repeat Verse 1

When I see your face,
My heart runs a race.
When I see you smile,
My joy goes a mile.
Your wide-dovey eyes,
Melt my heart like ice.
The gap in your teeth
Sweeps me off my feet.
Every time of day you're on my mind.
No one can compare
With the way you are,
You are dearly divine
Be mine.
Be mine.
Oh be mine
Am begging you
Oh be mine
Am begging you
Please be mine
